PANELISTS TO DISCUSS INTERNATIONAL LEADERSHIP

MISSOULA--

Montana leaders in cultural and international diversity will talk about their personal leadership experiences and share the lessons they've learned during a panel discussion at The University of Montana.

"Leadership Across Cultures" will take place from 7 to 9 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 6, in the University Center Ballroom. The panel discussion is free and open to the public; refreshments will be served.

Panelists will discuss leadership within and between cultures, as well as related issues of communication, multiculturalism, values and diversity. Audience questions will be taken after the discussion.

Panelists are:

- Renee Berglund, licensed professional counselor and president of the Missoula International Friendship Program.
- Marja Unkuri-Chaudry, UM international education coordinator.
- Arnold Sherman, executive director of the Montana World Trade Center.
- Christy Tsang, international student at UM.
- Maureen Curnow, chair of Foreign Languages and Literature.

The panel discussion is presented by UM's Center for Leadership Development.
